

Fill in the correct TENSES:

(present simple – present progressive – past simple – past progressive – present perfect simple – past perfect – will future – going to future)

1. Look, here are your tickets. You are going to fly (fly) next Friday.
2. When did you arrive (arrive) yesterday?
3. She always feeds (feed) her guinea pigs.
4. After he had stayed in bed for 3 days, he felt (feel) very weak.
5. I 've already found (already, find) a nice hotel for our next holiday.
6. Sue is going to have (have) a party next weekend and she is going to invite (invite) all her friends.
7. Stephen often helps (help) me in the garden but today he is learning (learn) for school.
8. When I'm older I won't go (not go) to school any more.
9. Maybe she will get (get) a new car next week.
10. After he had won (win) the race, Red Bull signed the contract.
11. The pupils were doing (do) their homework when the teacher came in.
12. Tim will probably look (probably, look) after his little sister.
13. Listen! Mum is singing (sing) the song again.
14. Tom was repairing (repair) the car while Mary was baking (bake) the cake.
15. Fred never drinks (drink) alcohol, he hates (hate) it.
16. Dad didn't smoke (not smoke) much last week. He will probably give up (probably, give up) smoking.
17. The grass and the trees are (be) dry. It hasn't rained (not rain) for 4 weeks. I hope it will rain (rain) soon.
18. She had done all the housework before she watched (watch) TV.
19. Where are you going to spend (you, spend) your next holiday? In France again? – No, we went (go) there last year. This year we are going to travel (travel) to Greece in summer.
20. I have already posted (already, post) the letter to Jim.
21. Look! A shark is swimming (swim) in the sea. I hope it won't eat (not eat) the people in it.
22. I have lost (lose) my purse and I haven't found (not find) it yet.
23. Every day my father rides (ride) his bike but I take (take) the bus.
24. Yesterday our dog bit (bite) my best friend.
25. I think I will have (have) a sandwich now!
26. She went to bed after she had texted (text) her friends.
27. We visited (visit) the museum last year.

Fill in the correct TENSES:

(present simple – present progressive – past simple – past progressive – present perfect simple – past perfect – will future – going to future)

1. After he had done (do) his work, he went to bed.
2. I was watching (watch) TV when the doorbell rang.
3. We got (get) our new car yesterday.
4. I have already talked (already, talk) to my dad.
5. We are going to (buy) a new CD – player next week, this is sure.
6. I hope we will win (win) the match tomorrow.
7. Last October the weather was (be) excellent so we went (go) for a walk.
8. He was skiing when he broke (break) his leg.
9. While she was learning (learn) he was cooking (cook).
10. Have you eaten (you, eat) your sandwich yet?
11. I hope our test won't be (not be) difficult.
12. Before he took (take) the dog for a walk, he had fed it.
13. Watch out! He is driving (drive) his new bike.
14. Every day the postman comes (come) to our house and brings (bring) us a letter.
15. I have never tried (never, try) this pudding.
16. I was diving (dive) when a boy jumped on me.
17. I have already decided (already, decide) that I 'm going to fly (fly) to Italy next week because I have all the money I need.
18. Be quiet! He is playing (play) the piano.
19. The meeting of the football club takes (take) place on Monday.
20. Brian hasn't called (not call) me up yet.
21. In 2010 they built (build) a house.
22. I think I will get (get) a good mark in my next test.
23. Frank is talking (talk) to his friend at the moment.
24. She goes (go) away every weekend.
25. I can't find my glasses. Have you seen (see) them?
26. The children are going to go (go) to the youth camp in the summer holidays.
27. We have played (play) tennis for two hours, let's have a rest now.
28. He usually has (have) coffee during the week but today he is drinking (drink) tea.
29. Two years ago I broke (break) my leg because I fell (fall) off my horse.
30. Look! Anne is running (run) down the street.

